

MOTIVATION STATEMENT

Dear Sir/Madam,

With 12 years of experience in the UN system, including 7 years in administrative services and support, I bring a strong understanding of the technical, administrative, financial, and logistical aspects critical for seamless project execution. My bachelor's degree in Telecommunication Engineering, coupled with expertise in program management, procurement, HR, and logistics, positions me as a strong candidate for this role.

Since 2018, I have served as an Administrative Assistant at the Office for Syria in Geneva, where I coordinated large high-level meetings and logistical arrangements for the Syrian Committees, Women's Advisory Board, and Civil Society Support Room. This involved organizing in-person, hybrid, and online meetings for UN officials and diplomats.

A key achievement was supporting the Syrian Committee meetings, including managing invitations for over 300 officials, securing venues, arranging interpretation and translation, processing verbatim records, and providing hospitality. I also facilitated travel for over 100 officials, coordinating flights, visas, accommodation, and transportation while ensuring compliance with Umoja workflows. Beyond meeting coordination, I provide general office support, including procurement, office supplies and services, and data analysis for budget reports. Known for my organizational skills, reliability, and ability to perform under pressure, I have successfully managed interactions with officials and diplomats from diverse backgrounds demonstrating a strong client-oriented approach, always upholding UN values, sound judgment, and gender perspectives.

As a Syrian national, I am deeply motivated to contribute to your office's mission in supporting families and communities affected by the issue of missing persons. I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can benefit your team.

Sincerely, Sam
Mansul

JOB REQUIREMENTS

A minimum of seven (7) years of experience in administrative services, finance, accounting, audit, human resources or related area is required. The minimum years of relevant experience is reduced to 5 for candidates who possess a first-level university degree or higher. Please explain how you meet this criterion using examples.

Yes, With over 12 years of experience in the United Nations system, including 7 years as an Administrative Assistant at the Office for Syria in Geneva, I have developed strong expertise in administrative management, finance and budget processes, and HR operations.

In my current role, I provide a wide range of administrative services, including extracting and analyzing reports for budget monitoring, procuring equipment and services for the office, and ensuring compliance with UN policies and procedures. Additionally, I have managed end-of-service processes for staff members and facilitated the onboarding of new personnel, guiding them through HR-related rules, workflows, and systems. These experiences have strengthened my ability to deliver efficient, client-oriented support while adherence to organizational values.

Experience in organizing large meetings and workshops and engaging and arranging travel with participants is required. Please explain how you meet this criterion using examples.

Yes, I have experience organizing large meetings and managing travel arrangements. At Syria Office in Geneva, I coordinated highprofile diplomatic meetings, including those for the Syrian Committees, Women's Advisory Board, and Civil Society Support Room. This involved handling invitations, venue setup, access, and logistical and technical arrangements.

I engaged with UN officials, government representatives, and diplomats to ensure smooth coordination. I supported arranging travel, including booking flights, accommodations, and transportation while adhering to UN policies and budget constraints. I also facilitated visa processes, prepared documentation, and coordinated with relevant authorities. Additionally, I provided on-site support, troubleshooting logistical issues in real-time to ensure seamless execution.

My strong organizational skills, ability to manage logistics, and communicate effectively have enabled me to successfully support largescale UN events.

Experience with Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems, such as UMOJA, in requisitioning is desirable. Please explain how you meet this criterion using examples.

Yes, I have experience using Umoja for requisitioning and travel management in my role as an Administrative Assistant at Syria Office. I have managed procurement processes, including creating shopping carts, tracking approvals, and processing service entry sheets. For example, I successfully procured 50 new laptops through a systems contract and coordinated the purchase of office furniture from local vendors, ensuring timely deliver. I regularly process invoices for office services in Umoja, such as Eldora, and Sharp. Additionally, I have used Umoja for travel arrangements, handling travel requests and expense reports. My technical proficiency with Umoja, combined with my ability to manage procurement and travel in a structured and time-sensitive environment, makes me well-equipped to handle ERP-based administrative functions effectively.

Applicants for positions subject to local recruitment are required to be authorized to work in the country regardless of where they live at the time of applying for the job opening. Are you authorized to work in the duty station? Please explain below. Yes, I am authorized to work in the duty station, as I am currently employed at the UN in Geneva and hold a valid Carte de Légitimation (CDL). A copy of my CDL is attached to my application for your reference.
